

Dolina-Noteci.com Online Shop Cookie Policy

1. The www.dolina-noteci.com online shop uses cookies.

2. Cookies are IT data,

in particular text files, which are stored on the end-user's device and are intended for use when accessing the website's pages. Cookies usually contain the name of the website from which they originate, the duration for which they are stored on the end-user's device, and a unique number.

3. The entity that places cookies on the website user's end device and accesses them is the website

operator.

4. Cookies are used for the following purposes:

a. To compile statistics that help us understand how website users interact with the web pages, thereby enabling us to improve their structure and content;

b. To maintain the website user's session (after logging in), so that the user does not have to re-enter their username and password on every subpage of the website;

c. Determining the user's profile in order to display tailored content to them on advertising networks, in particular the Google network.

5. The website uses two main types of cookies:

'session' cookies and 'persistent' cookies. 'Session'

cookies are temporary files stored on the user's end device until they log out, leave the website or close the software (web browser).

'Persistent' cookies are stored on the user's device for the period specified in the cookie settings or until they are deleted by the user.

6. Web browsing software (web browser) usually allows cookies to be stored on the user's device by default. Website users may change their settings in this regard. The web browser allows you to delete cookies. It is also possible to automatically block cookies; detailed information on this subject can be found in the web browser's help section or documentation.

7. Restrictions on the use of cookies may affect certain features available on the website's pages.

8. Cookies placed on the website user's device may also be used by advertisers and partners cooperating with the website operator.

9. We recommend that you read these companies' privacy policies to familiarise yourself with the rules governing the use of cookies for statistical purposes:

Google Analytics privacy policy.

10. Cookies may be used by advertising networks, in particular the Google network, to display adverts tailored to the way in which the user uses the website. To this end, they may store information about the user's navigation path or the time spent on a given page.

11. With regard to information about the user's preferences collected by the Google advertising network, the user may view and edit the information derived from cookies using the following tool:

<https://www.google.com/ads/preferences/>
